

Cash Registers

Although it involves minimal risk and offers a small reward, looting cash registers within barbershops, clothing stores, and tattoo parlors can fulfill the adrenaline rush you're seeking. Simply obtain a lockpick from your local Ammu-Nation, head to one of the designated stores, and use the lockpick to open the cash register.

The proceeds from the robbery may be modest in terms of dirty money, but if luck is on your side, you might come across a sticky note containing information about criminal contacts.

Stay vigilant, as you've triggered the silent alarm, and the police have been notified.
