- Dogwalking
- Sunset Bleach
- LSDWP \(Electrician\)
- Los Santos Department of Sanitation

Trucking

To start a trucking job, open your phone via F1 and click on the Job Centre App (Job Centre: ). Scroll down to Trucking and select it. You will need to have your CDL (Commercial Drivers License) before you can start a job.

Once you've selected the job, head down to the Trucking depot . Make sure you are right at the icon, as that is where the starting point is. You will see a white rotating truck icon, go up to it and you will receive a prompt to press E. The jobs are randomized and you will then be put into a truck where you will receive a GPS marker to go pickup your cargo. Drive up right behind it and it will hitch automatically to your truck.

When you are in the truck, you will have access to the CB radio where you can communicate with other truckers. You have the option to turn it off at the start by pressing E.

From there, you will receive a GPS marker to the location of your drop-off. Once you arrive to the location, you will see a yellow circle. Drive into the circle so your cargo is right in the middle and press H to unhitch it. The cargo will disappear, and you will have a prompt take the truck back with a GPS marker. Park the truck in the yellow circle and get out. After that, you will receive your payment. Each job pays differently depending on distance.

Having a suspended license will prevent you from starting a trucking job. Watch your driving.

GoPostal

To start a GoPostal job, open your phone via F1 and open the Job Centre App (JobCentre: ). Scroll down to GoPostal and select it. You will need a standard drivers license from the DMV in order to do GoPostal.

Once you've selected the job, head to the GoPostal Depot (). To unlock the gates, press E. By the building, you will see a ped in a GoPostal uniform that you can use your left alt muscle to start a delivery run. You will then be put into a Boxville van where you will receive a GPS marker to your first drop-off. The run consists of around 12-15 drop-off locations. Drive safely though, as any damage done to the vehicle will result in a small deductible from your payment.

After you dropped off your last package, you will receive a message instructing you to return to the depot. There will be a yellow circle at the depot where you return your work vehicle to and receive your payment.

Having a suspended license will prevent you from starting a GoPostal route. Watch your driving.
